Dear Parents

An Evening with Anthony Horowitz - Tuesday 10th May

Helen & Douglas House are delighted to announce an exclusive evening with Anthony Horowitz, one of Britain's best loved authors. On Tuesday 10th May, Anthony will talk about his work including the Alex Rider novels, Power of Five series, The Diamond Brother series and his work in television.

Many pupils at The Manor have enjoyed the Alex Rider novels which include Stormbreaker, Point Blank, Skeleton Key, Eagle Strike, *Scorpi*a, Ark Angel, Snakehead and Crocodile Tears. The ninth and final Alex Rider book, *Scorpi*a Rising, will be published on 31st March.

The evening, which will also feature a question and answer session, starts at 6.30pm at the Amey Theatre, Abingdon School. After the talk Anthony will sign books (1 book per child) and some of his work will also be available to purchase.

Tickets costing £15 each or £45 for a family ticket (2 adults and 2 children) are available online at www.abingdon-booking/info or tickets can be reserved and paid for at the door on the night by contacting 01235 849063. Alternatively tickets may be bought in person from Mostly Books, Abingdon.

This is a very exciting opportunity to hear a fabulous author who is hugely popular with children. Thanks to the generosity of the author and Abingdon School, all profit from this event will benefit Helen & Douglas House.

Kind regards

Kate Belcher
