A Message from the Editor

Mrs Nicole Burroughs

This edition comes to you with apologies for its lateness! When one of our reporters, Emma H, wrote the article below about a new illness called Coronavirus, we had no idea how our Spring Term at The Manor would end! We missed our final session of Manor Mash Up Club when the school had to close and lockdown swiftly followed. Now I have finally had time to pull together the fantastic articles, puzzles and quizzes produced by the awesome Manor Mash Up team... thank you all for your efforts and I hope everyone enjoys reading our 'lockdown edition'. Have a HAPPY EASTER and stay safe.

CORONAVIRUS

The Coronavirus is an infectious disease that is something that has never happened before. It is thought to have started in a market in Wuhan, China. It has now spread into pretty much every continent and the numbers of people getting it is going up every single hour of the day. People are now protecting themselves from it but it is very dangerous for older people or those who already have health problems. In the news it has been quite hectic because it is something that we have never experienced before. The symptoms are: if you are feeling short of breath (as if you just ran House Cross Country), if your temperature is getting higher and having a persistent cough which gets more croaky over time.

Interview With Mr Footring

Where did you work before and what did you do?

I worked in a school called Royal Russell which is in Surrey on the outskirts of London. I did lots of different jobs during my time there including a Year 1 teacher, a Year 2 teacher, Head of Year 1&2, and Head of Maths.

Were you embarrassed when you were wearing your matching Christmas blazer and trousers?

No, I was actually very excited to wear it, and very thankful for all of the extra accessories given to me by pupils (even though I was found out to be cheating at the end!)

When you were young, what did you want to be? (Other than a teacher)

I wanted to be either a Musician or a Videogame Designer.

Growing up, my favourite subjects were English and Music, but now it's just English.

How is it sharing a room with Mrs Evans and is she messy?

It's lovely sharing a room with her, she is so kind and she is definitely not messy, I'm actually the messy one!

The Poetry Festival

The Poetry Festival is held every year here at The Manor. Years 1 to 6 take part. Everyone learns a poem off by heart and performs it to the whole class. Out of every class the teacher picks one to two students to perform to the whole school in the final.

If you are struggling to find a poem here are a few suggestions...

Years 1-2: |

'Snowball' by Shel Silverstein

'Now We Are Six' by A A Milne

Years 3-6 (inspired by Spring):

'Daffodil' by William Wordsworth

'Spring', the Sweet Spring by Thomas Nashe

Here are some lovely Spring photos
to get you in the Spring spirit!

Fun Facts about Poetry

The Golden Flower

By Olivia A

Once there were two girls. One was called Marie. Marie loved going on adventures and singing. The other girl was called Jane. Jane loved to draw and design stuff. This story takes place on the 13th of July 2002, when the girls are both 17.

“Mum have you got my notepad and pen?” shouted Jane from her bedroom. “Oh silly me I almost forgot it!” said Jane’s Mother from the kitchen. Jane was packing her enormous purple suitcase to go on an adventure that her best friend, Marie, insisted on going on. Their adventure was: to find the Golden Flower; hidden deep inside a chamber in the middle of nowhere.

When they got to the place where they said to meet, Marie got there 20 minutes early because she only lived 12 minutes away. Jane on the other hand lived 26 minutes away. When Jane saw Marie she said “What have you got in there?!” pointing at her suitcase. Marie replied with... “ Well I’ve got a toothbrush, some toothpaste, a bottle of shower gel, pyjamas, a tent for us to sleep in on our journey... and so on!”

So when their bus arrived they hopped on the bus and their parents went to stay in a hotel in Bolivia (that’s where Jane and Marie were going) to wait for their kids to find the Golden Flower. On the bus Marie saw a person in a black hooded cloak looking at her and she saw that they had a knife in their pocket... but Marie didn't mind. Marie laughs in the face of danger!

When they arrived at the airport they went to the burger place and had a burger. Then they got on the plane. It was a very long journey but they got there alright. When they got there they had to first find the right rainforest. When they found it, they set off to find the Golden Flower. They set off through the trees and vines until nightfall. “ We have to find a place to sleep tonight, Marie...” said Jane nervously. “ Ha!, you’re kidding right!” said Marie with a laughing tone in her voice. “N-No?” whispered Jane. “It's fine if you’re scared Jane. We can go back if you want” said Marie. “No I don't want to go back, I mean you’re never too late for an adventure, right?!” Said Jane.

So they carried on walking until they got too tired to walk anymore. They found a hollow tree trunk and put their sleeping bags underneath. They snuggled in and fell into a deep, deep sleep...

When Jane woke up, at first she screamed a very high pitched scream which sent rock birds flying and parrots squawking their heads off. Marie woke up with a start and said “WHAT ON EARTH WAS THAT FOR?”. Jane just shrugged and apologised.

After that they carried on walking... until they found a temple... the Temple. And right there, glowing as brightly as the sun was the Golden Flower...
