It has been all over the news for lots of weeks because this is a historic event which will probably never happen again in our lifetimes.

Latest news!

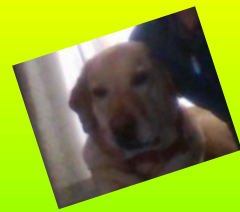

On the 24th February 2022 Russia invaded Ukraine in the hopes of making it part of Russia again. Ukraine had always been part of Russia until 24th August 1991 when it demanded independence. The war is still going on and if you ever get upset by any of this news then you can always come and talk about it to your parents or teachers or anyone you trust.
