DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS
3:00 pm Tuesday 7 May 2024

INTERVIEWS TO TAKE PLACE ON Monday 13 May 2024

The Manor

Preparatory School

Dear Applicant

Welcome to The Manor!

Thank you for your interest in The Manor Preparatory School. This information pack is designed to give you more information about the school and the post you are interested in and we hope that we are able to convey the qualities that make The Manor an exceptional place, not only for our pupils, but also for our fulfilled and happy staff that work hard to create the school's spirit, warmth and dynamism.

Founded in 1907 and situated in Abingdon, the Manor Preparatory School is an outstanding independent co-educational day school that welcomes boys and girls aged 2-11. The Manor has a wonderfully happy, creative atmosphere where each individual is challenged, cherished and inspired to reach their potential. Every child is encouraged to do their best, resulting in outstanding results academically, on the sports field, and in creative and performing arts.

In the Early Years Department, our purpose-built Pre-Nursery and Nursery gives children the best start in bright, airy facilities together with a team of enthusiastic, qualified and dedicated staff. Children in Reception, Years 1 and 2 are exposed to a stimulating and enriching curriculum supported by a team of exceptional Teachers and a full-time Teaching Assistant in each class.

From the age of 7 to 11, the pupils in our Prep Department enjoy increased specialised teaching in a rich, warm-hearted environment where all pupils are encouraged to fulfil their potential. The school has outstanding facilities for Music, Science, ICT, Food Technology, Art, DT, Sport and Drama and offers an extensive range of extra-curricular activities but retains a primary school ethos, focusing on the happiness and well-being of each child.

In its latest ISI Inspection Report, The Manor was rated 'excellent' (the top grade the ISI now awards) in all respects. Each member of our staff contributes to the unique identity of The Manor, providing a network of support and teamwork which has become a characteristic of the School. Children are "challenged, cherished and inspired".

We hope that on reading our application pack, we are able to convey a sense of the school's spirit, warmth and dynamism that have made it thrive over the years. Naturally if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us by email (hr@manorprep.org) or by phone (01235 858 478). You are welcome to telephone to arrange for an informal tour at any point.

May we take this opportunity to thank you for the time and thought that we recognise goes into preparing a job application.

With very best wishes

Primary Responsibilities:

The Head of the Music Department directs a second member of staff, a music department administrator and peripatetic instrument and singing teachers. As a senior level position, the Director of Music will need to be available for events that fall outside the regular timetable.

Aims

- To ensure that music is made accessible to and enjoyable for every child in the school regardless of individual ability.
- To develop in a systematic manner the skills required in the National Curriculum.
- To encourage a sense of involvement throughout the department, so that peripatetic teachers can take a full part in the children's overall musical development.
- To understand and develop opportunities for music to be integrated where appropriate with other subjects, especially Drama and year group plays.
- To challenge the able and prepare them for possible scholarships.
- To regularly and appropriately plan and inform all Music Department staff of future events.

Areas of Responsibility

a) Education

- To meet regularly with colleagues, making sure that class teaching is properly coordinated, with a suitable progression throughout the school.
- To organise the recruitment and appointment of Peripatetic Music Teachers, ensuring that new members of staff to the department have undertaken all the required checks to allow them to start teaching unsupervised (eg DBS, Safeguarding Training).
- To meet regularly with and to forge strong links with the peripatetic teachers, ensuring they are aware of key school policies and ensuring they have clear guidelines about school expectations. Also to monitor and observe each teacher and to encourage them to run weekly ensembles in their instrument/s.
- To be aware of all music resources in the school, up-dating these when advisable, and bringing them to the attention of all staff concerned.
- To maintain a full programme of extra-curricular activities, such as orchestras, choirs, recorder groups, theory classes and chamber music ensembles (including Hymn Practices for all children.
- To develop opportunities for pupils to perform at external events
- To collaborate with teachers in any stage production which involves music.
- To attend relevant courses and keep up-to-date with new material as it is published.

- In conjunction with the Deputy Head Pastoral, to organise termly Chapel Services including contributions from the Chamber Choir and arranging for a pianist to accompany them.
- Attend all relevant Parents' Evenings.
- To allow a sufficient amount of time to ensure planning, preparation and facilities are ready for a new term.

b) Administration (with the assistance of a part-time Music Department Administrator, who works under the direction of the Director of Music).

- To arrange individual music lessons in response to parents' requests (as long as the lessons are considered appropriate for any particular child) and ensuring there are places available.
- To coordinate the timetabling of Peripatetic Music Teachers, ensuring they are kept up to date with key school events and ensuring they are aware of protected lessons so they can schedule their timetables accordingly.
- To ensure all facilities fees for visiting teachers are accurately recorded and passed on to the Assistant Bursar at the end of each term.
- To organise regular entries for Associated Board examinations, subsequently preparing timetables and supervising their operation.
- To create regular opportunities for talented children to perform in public, as soloists or members of small groups (whilst maintaining the policy that music at Primary level should remain a subject in which all can participate).
- Ensuring parents are kept informed of music events and that letters are prepared in a timely manner, giving sufficient notice to attend such events.
- Coordinating catering requests for music events.
- To liaise as appropriate with Heads of Music in Senior schools, especially in the area of music awards offered at 11 plus.
- Maintenance of Departmental Budget.
- Organise regular concerts for children
- To monitor and supervise all instruments and instrumental hire within the department.
- Inform Bursary Administrator of all termly hire cost at the end of each term.
- Chair a weekly Departmental Meeting
- Organising a meeting at least annually of all peripatetic staff in order to discuss prevalent issues.
- Organisation of events for peripatetic staff to assist them to recruit new instrumental pupils.

c) Other duties

- Playing the music (piano or CD as appropriate) when children and staff enter and leave the hall for assemblies.
- Playing the piano for assemblies.
- In consultation with the Head and Deputy Heads, organise and prepare the Y3-6 Carol Service, including ensuring arrangements for the provision of chairs, music stands etc.

The above non-contractual benefits are currently available to staff. They are at the discretion of the Governors who reserve the right to withdraw them without notice.

Application and Recruitment Process

Application Form

- Applications will only be accepted from candidates completing the enclosed application form in full. CV's will not be accepted in substitution for completed application forms. They may, however, be submitted in addition to the application form.
- Candidates should be aware that all posts in the School involve some degree of responsibility for safeguarding children, although the extent of that responsibility will vary according to the nature of the post. Please see the job description [and person specification] for the post.
- The successful applicant will be required to complete a disclosure form from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) for the post and, where appropriate, a check of the Barred List maintained by the DBS will be made. Any offers of appointment will be made conditional on obtaining such satisfactory checks. For further information, please contact the Disclosure and Barring Service – <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service> - Additionally, successful applicants should be aware that they are required to notify the School immediately if there are any reasons why they should not be working with children.
- The School takes its responsibility to safeguard children very seriously and any staff member and/or successful candidate who is aware of anything that may affect his/her suitability to work with children must notify the School immediately. This will include notification of any convictions, cautions, court orders, reprimands or warnings he/she may receive.
- The Childcare (Disqualification) and Childcare (Early Years Provision Free of Charge) (Extended Entitlement) (Amendment) Regulations 2018 apply to those providing early years childcare or later years' childcare, including before school and after school clubs, to children who have not attained the age of 8 and to those who are directly concerned in the management of that childcare.
- Staff and/or successful candidates who are disqualified from childcare or registration may apply to Ofsted for a waiver of disqualification. Such individuals may not be employed in the areas from which they are disqualified, or involved in the management of those settings, unless and until such waiver is confirmed. Please speak to the Head for more details.
- The School has a legal duty under section 26 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 to have 'due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism'. This is known as the Prevent duty. Schools are required to assess the risk of children being drawn into terrorism, including support for extremist ideas that are part of terrorist ideology. Accordingly, as part of the recruitment process, when an offer is made the offer will be subject to a Prevent duty risk assessment.
- We will seek references on shortlisted candidates and may approach previous employers for information to verify particular experience or qualifications, before interview.
- If you are currently working with children, on either a paid or voluntary basis, your current employer will be asked about disciplinary offences, including disciplinary offences relating to children or young persons (whether the disciplinary sanction is current or time expired), and whether you have been the subject of any child protection allegations or concerns and, if so, the outcome of any enquiry or disciplinary procedure.
- If you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, that previous employer will be asked about those issues. Where neither your current nor previous employment has involved working with children, your current employer will still be asked about your suitability to work with children. The employer may answer 'not applicable' if your duties have not brought you into contact with children or young persons.

The school may contact work, whether or not they connection with a referee. employment history, we may request character references which may include references from your school or university.

- As the job for which you are applying involves substantial opportunity for access to children, it is important that you provide us with accurate answers. You should be aware that provision of false information is an offence and could result in the application being rejected or summary dismissal if the applicant has been selected and possible referral to the police and/or DBS.

Invitation to Interview

Please note, interviews may take place remotely if Covid restrictions apply.

What to bring to the interview

All candidates invited to interview must also bring with them:

1. A current driving licence including a photograph and paper counterpart or a passport or a full birth certificate;
2. A utility bill or financial statement issued within the last three months showing the candidate's current name and address;
3. Where appropriate, any documentation evidencing a change of name;
4. Where applicable, proof of entitlement to work and reside in the UK. Further information regarding the necessary documentary evidence can be found on the Home Office website. Alternatively, please contact Human Resources at hr@manorprep.org to discuss the requirements in more detail.

Please note that originals of the above are necessary. Photocopies or certified copies are not sufficient.

5. All candidates invited to interview must bring documents confirming any educational and professional qualifications that are necessary or relevant for the post (e.g. the original or certified copy of certificates, diplomas etc). Where originals or certified copies are not available for the successful candidate, written confirmation of the relevant qualifications must be obtained by you from the awarding body.
6. If the position you are applying for requires a mandatory professional qualification or membership you will need to produce your qualification and proof of professional membership at interview.

Disability and reasonable adjustments

Candidates with a disability who are invited to interview should kindly inform the School of any necessary reasonable adjustments or arrangements to assist them in attending the interview.

Conditional Offer of Appointment: Pre-Appointment Checks

Any offer to a successful candidate will be conditional upon

- verification of identity and qualifications
- verification of right to work in the UK, where appropriate
- a satisfactory Enhanced DBS check and, if appropriate, a check against the Children's Barred List and the Adults' Barred List maintained by the DBS

Criminal Records Policy

The School will refer to the Department for Education (“DfE”) document, ‘Keeping Children Safe in Education’ and any amended version in carrying out the necessary required DBS checks.

The School complies with the provisions of the DBS Code of Practice, a copy of which may be obtained on request or accessed here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-code-of-practice>.

Any offer of employment is conditional upon the School obtaining an Enhanced Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) which the School considers to be satisfactory. The School applies for an Enhanced check for Regulated Activity from the DBS (which includes a check of the Children’s Barred List) in respect to all positions at the School which amount to regulated activity. It is unlawful for the School to employ anyone who is barred from working with children. It is a criminal offence for any person who is barred from working with children to attempt to apply for a position at the School. If you are successful in your application, you will be required to complete an online DBS Disclosure Application Form. Any information disclosed will be handled in accordance with any guidance and/or Code of Practice published by the DBS.

Policy on the Recruitment of Ex-Offenders

The School will not unfairly discriminate against any candidate for employment on the basis of conviction or other details revealed. The School makes appointment decisions on the basis of merit and ability. If an individual has a criminal record this will not automatically bar him/her from employment within the School. Instead, each case will be fairly and objectively assessed by the School in relation to the nature of the employment applied for, and the nature of the offence concerned.

Any member of staff, their family (if over 16), volunteer, agency/contract staff working at the school or any other adult coming into regular contact with the children or having unsupervised access to school premises, will not be employed or permitted to live or work on school premises if recruitment checks disclose that they have been convicted of an offence which indicate that they may be unsuitable to work with or have regular contact with children.

Under the relevant legislation, it is unlawful for the School to employ anyone who is included on the lists maintained by the DBS of individuals who are considered unsuitable to work with children. In addition, it will also be unlawful for the School to employ anyone who is the subject of a disqualifying order made on being convicted or charged with the following offences against children: murder, manslaughter, rape, other serious sexual offences, grievous bodily harm or other serious acts of violence. It is also unlawful for the School to knowingly employ someone who works in the relevant settings and is disqualified from providing childcare under the statutory guidance “Disqualification under the Childcare Act 2006 (July 2018)”.

It is a criminal offence for any person who is disqualified from working with children to attempt to apply for a position within the School. The School will report the matter to the Police and/or the DBS if:

- the School receives an application from a disqualified person;

The Manor
Preparatory School

- is provided with support of, an applicant's application; or
- the School has serious concerns about an applicant's suitability to work with children. false information in, or in

Please note that any employer (where children are involved), whom we contact for a reference, will be asked to declare if you have been subject to any substantiated allegations or concerns, as defined by the Department of Education, that have been raised (whether formally or informally) about you relating to the safety and welfare of children and young people, and if so, the outcome.

All candidates should be aware that provision of false information is an offence and could result in the application being rejected or summary dismissal if they have been appointed, and a possible referral to the police and/or DBS.

In the event that relevant information (whether in relation to previous convictions or otherwise) is volunteered by an applicant during the recruitment process or obtained through a disclosure check, the School will consider the following factors before reaching a recruitment decision:

- whether the conviction or other matter revealed is relevant to the position in question;
- whether the conviction or caution is 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2020 (if yes, it will not be taken into account);
- the seriousness of any offence or other matter revealed;
- the length of time since the offence or other matter occurred;
- whether the applicant has a pattern of offending behaviour or other relevant matters;
- whether the applicant's circumstances have changed since the offending behaviour or other relevant matters;
- in the case of disqualification from providing childcare, whether the applicant has or is able to obtain an Ofsted waiver from disqualification; and
- the circumstances surrounding the offence and the explanation(s) offered by the convicted person.

If the post involves regular contact with children, it is the School's normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of any the following offences: murder, manslaughter, rape, other serious sexual offences, grievous bodily harm or other serious acts of violence, serious class A drug related offences, robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud.

If the post involves access to money or budget responsibility, it is the School's normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud. If the post involves some driving responsibilities, it is the School's normal policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted of drink driving.

Retention and Security of Records and Data Protection

The School will comply with its obligations regarding the retention and security of records in accordance with the DBS Code of Practice and its obligations under its Data Protection Policy. Copies of DBS certificates will not be retained for longer than 6 months. Details of how we use candidates' data is explained in the Recruitment Privacy Notice and Data Protection Policy.
